How to play

1. Youngest player rolls first. Go around the circle to the left.
2. Roll the die and do what the chart says. Unwrap a gift as soon as you pick it.
3. A gift can be stolen 3 times. After the third steal it is frozen and stays put.
4. When every gift is opened, play the left-right story on the next page to finish.

Roll 1

Pick a wrapped gift from the pile, or steal any opened gift.

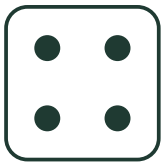

Roll 2

Swap your gift with the player on your left.

Roll 3

Swap your gift with the player on your right.

Roll 4

Trade gifts with anyone you choose.

Roll 5

Lucky you: keep your gift and roll again.

Roll 6

Everyone passes their gift one seat to the left.

Read aloud. Pass your gift LEFT or RIGHT each time you hear the word (9 lefts, 10 rights).
