How to Use This Planner

A no-buy year means you stop buying the things you already have enough of, and spend on purpose on the rest.

No-buy or low-buy?

No-buy: you pick categories you will not shop at all this year (for example clothes, decor, beauty). Low-buy: you allow a few planned buys with a limit. Both work; pick the one you can keep for 12 months.

Your first week

1. Write your rules on page 3: what you stop buying, what is still allowed and your exceptions.
2. Add your why and a reward you will earn at the end of the year (an experience works well).
3. Unsubscribe from shop emails and delete saved cards from shopping apps.
4. Tape the month's calendar where you will see it every day.

Every day and every month

- [ ] Shade or tick each no-spend day on the month's calendar.
- [ ] Want something? Add it to the 30-Day Want List and wait.
- [ ] Log any strong urge on the Temptation Log, with what you did instead.
- [ ] At month end, count your no-spend days and money kept.
- [ ] Copy each month's totals onto the Year Tally page.
- [ ] Slip up? Write it down, read your why, start again tomorrow.

What counts as a no-spend day

A day with no spending outside your fixed bills and the basics you listed as allowed (rent, utilities, groceries, fuel, medicine). You decide the list; keep it the same all year so your tally is honest.

Ideas for your stop-buying list

- Clothes and shoes
- Home decor
- Beauty and skincare extras
- Books (use the library)
- Kitchen gadgets
- Craft supplies
- Takeout coffee
- Phone and game upgrades
- Candles and gifts for me

30-Day Want List

Write it down, wait 30 days, then decide. Most wants fade; the ones that last were worth planning for.

Monthly Check-In and Year-End Review

Answer a few each month, and all of them in December.

What did I stop wanting once I waited 30 days?

Which rule was hardest to keep, and why?

What did I use up, mend or borrow instead of buying?

Where did the money I kept go (savings, debt, a goal)?

Which rule will I keep for 2028?

You just made my day!

Thank you for choosing a small, one-person shop over the big guys.

Quick favor? If this made your party or planning even a little easier, a 30-second review helps the next family find it. I read every single one.

How: Etsy app → You → Purchases → Leave a review
