How to Host Your Cookie Swap

START HERE

Print what you need on US Letter (fits A4 with fit to page). Cut cards on the dashed lines.

Host it in six steps

1. Three weeks out, pick the date and send the fill-in invitation (page 3).
2. Use the sign-up sheet so no two guests bake the same cookie.
3. Share the swap rules and the baking math so everyone brings enough.
4. Ask guests to fill a recipe card and set a cookie label with allergens by their plate.
5. Everyone tastes, votes on the Best Cookie ballots and fills their boxes.
6. Tally the votes, crown the winners and send the thank-you cards.

Swap Rules and Baking Math

Send these with the invitation so everyone bakes the right amount.

1. Bake one kind of cookie and sign up so there are no repeats.
2. Homemade only; no store-bought cookies.
3. Bring half a dozen cookies for each guest, plus one extra dozen for tasting.
4. Bring a recipe card for your cookie and fill in its label with allergens.
5. Bring a container or box to carry your cookies home.
6. Taste first, vote once, then fill your box with half a dozen of each kind.
7. Leftovers go home with the host or to a neighbor.

Swap day packing list

You just made my day!

Thank you for choosing a small, one-person shop over the big guys.

Quick favor? If this made your party or planning even a little easier, a 30-second review helps the next family find it. I read every single one.

How: Etsy app → You → Purchases → Leave a review

Something not right? Message me first and I'll fix it fast.

With thanks,
